

Southeast Florida Climate Change Compact RCAP Workshop

How to get involved in the Code development process

March 14, 2019

Many Codes and Standards and many opportunities to get involved :

Code creation

Code adoption

Code education/training

Code enforcement

Standards

National Green Building Standard

LEED (USGBC)

Florida Green Building Certification

ASHRAE (base for Green Code and path for Energy Conservation Code)

Codes

International Codes (Building, Residential, Existing, Accessibility, Mechanical, Electrical, Plumbing, Green, Energy Conservation, NGBS, Property Maintenance)

National Fire Prevention Codes (Fire, Electrical)

Low Barrier to Entry

If you have an interest there is a place for you

General Public (little to no cost)

- Propose changes to the code*
- Attend code hearings*
- Comment on proposed changes*
- Lobby government officials*

Industry and Associations

- Propose changes to the code*
- Attend code hearings*
- Comment on proposed changes*
- Sit on Code Action Committees*
- Lobby Government*
- Vote on proposed changes (i.e. NGBS)*

Local Government (membership to ICC and continuing education)

- Propose changes to the code*
- Attend code hearings*
- Comment on proposed changes*
- Sit on ICC Code Action Committees (selected applicants)*
- ICC Membership Councils (open to all ICC members)*
- Vote on Proposed Code Changes*

AT A MINIMUM BECOME AN ICC MEMBER SO YOU CAN CAST YOUR VOTE!