

RCAP 3.0 IMPLEMENTATION WORKSHOP

Virtual Workshop
June 8, 2026

Green Infrastructure and Innovative Approaches for Alternative Stormwater Management

- |             |  |
|-------------|--|
| 2:00 PM     | Welcome Remarks &amp; Agenda OverviewLauren Evans, Staff Consultant to the Southeast Florida Regional Climate Change Compact   |
| 2:05 - 2:25 | Green Stormwater Infrastructure: The State of the ScienceTiffany Troxler, Ph.D., Associate Professor, Department of Earth and Environment &amp; Director of Science, Sea Level Solutions Center, Florida International University      |
| 2:25 - 2:40 | What's on the horizon: SB302 "Coastal Resiliency"Janet Bowman, Senior Policy Advisor/Climate Policy, The Nature Conservancy Florida  |
| 2:40 - 3:00 | Case Study: Broward County Port Everglades Port Marshalling Yard Alternative Drainage DesignNirmal Datta, Capital Program Administrator &amp; Richard Tornese, Director, Highway Construction and Engineering Division, Broward County |
| 3:00 - 3:10 | BREAK   |
| 3:10 - 3:30 | Case Study: Miami Beach Bayshore Park: Reclaiming a Golf Course for Flood Attenuation &amp; Stormwater RetentionDavid Gomez, Director, Office of Capital Improvements &amp; Amy Knowles, Chief Resilience Officer, City of Miami Beach |
| 3:30 - 3:50 | Case Study: Coral Gables Giralda Plaza: Living Streetscape Urban RedesignWalter Rodríguez Meyer, Founding Principal, Local &amp; Adj. Professor, Stanford University   |

3:50 - 4:10

Case Study: Palm City, Martin County Ripple Project: Distributed Green Stormwater Infrastructure

Amy Eason, Environmental Resource Engineer, Public Works Department, &
Jordan Pastorius, Assistant Community Development Manager
Martin County

4:10 - 4:15 PM

Closing Remarks and Adjourn

